

Student Presentation Awards

The Student Presentation Awards program was established at the 2007 Euroclay Conference in Aveiro, Portugal. The awards are to be presented to the best poster and oral presentations by a student and shall consist of cash awards and recognition at the closing ceremony.

1. Only oral and poster presentations with a student as the first author (and as the presenting author) will be considered.
2. All students presenting at the International Clay Conference and Euroclay are eligible.
3. A first and second prize will be given for each category (oral and poster), with a cash award for both first and second prizes, initially $100 and $50, respectively.
4. All student oral and poster presentations will be evaluated by members of Council and their designates attending the Euroclay or International Clay Conferences.
